Message from your President -- Carol Tripp

Greetings to all from your new president of the New Sweden Cultural Heritage Society!

I’m excited about working with all of you to continue Kristi’s enthusiastic leadership. She is a hard act to follow, but, with your help, I’ll try to get up-to-speed as quickly as possible. My Swedish background is on my mother's side of the family. My grandmother’s father worked in the Kosta crystal factory in Småland: my grandfather lived in Malmö Skåne. My great-great grandfather was the “son” of Baron, Count and Royal Councilor Carl Piper, who was a friend of Abraham Lincoln while he was Minister from Sweden in 1861. It is fun to return to Christinehoff Slott and walk the grounds Count Carl Piper walked and to see the alum mine that supported Christina’s community during her lifetime. My mother was 6 years old when she, her 8-year-old brother, and her mother and father left out of Gothenburg in April, 1913. Out of Liverpool they sailed on the sister ship to the Titanic, the Mauretania. Titanic had sunk the year before in 1912. Mother often talked about the ceremony they had when the ship stopped over the spot where the sinking occurred. Wreaths were dropped on the water and the band played “Nearer My God To Thee.” (Though now I understand that recent research indicates that this hymn was not played as the Titanic sank as had been previously reported.) This ceremony left a lasting impression on my mother, my uncle and my grandfather. My grandmother was seasick the entire trip and did not take part in the ceremony.

New Sweden started off the year 2012, with the annual meeting in February, and now is the time to straighten out your cabinets and closets and donate your lovingly used items to New Sweden for our fundraising garage sale, May 11 and 12, 2012. The money raised at this event is given to the Trollbacken Children’s Swedish Language summer camp. We will need volunteers assisting during the sale, so please see if you can set aside some of your time for this effort. Call me at 503-617-6826 or Ross Fogelquist at 503-244-3697 to volunteer or to arrange to drop off your treasures. If you prefer to have them picked up, just let us know and we'll make arrangements for a mutually convenient time for a driver to make the pick up. Katarina Braaten and GunMarie Rosqvist will start calling for volunteers needed for the Midsummer Event at Oaks Park on Saturday June 16, 2012.

I’ll be seeing you throughout the year, and look forward to being an active participant of this exciting organization.
The Swedish and Finnish communities came together again to celebrate Walpurgis/Vappu on April 30th hosted by Dave and Melinda Carter at their farm in West Linn.

Much hot dogs, coffee and singing was delivered by the audience as well as from the Scandinavia Choruses.

Tack så Mycket to Dave and Melinda!

Hi all Volunteers - from Carol Tripp

At a Swedish League meeting it was brought up that some people volunteer for the League booth, but go to the New Sweden booth at Midsummer. Then they are told they aren't scheduled there. A reminder to folks who have volunteered for Midsummer to keep in mind that they should check the booth for the League if they are not scheduled for New Sweden booth service so we don't over or under-staff any organization.

Tack så mycket!

Advantages of being a nonprofit organization

Organizing as a nonprofit group may allow an organization to get exemptions from a variety of federal, state, and local taxes. As a nonprofit organization, the group is in the best position to attract grants and donations. To do this, you will be required to go a further step in obtaining a 501(c)(3) with the Federal IRS office. In addition, people are more likely to be supportive of a tax-exempt group.

Disadvantages of a nonprofit organization

The income made by the group must be used for its nonprofit purposes. Reasonable salaries may be paid, but cannot use any “extra” for personal gain of the employees or members of the group. When a group dissolves, it will have to turn over any excess funds (after debts are paid) to another nonprofit group with similar purposes or to its members. There is a certain amount of paperwork to set up and maintain a nonprofit structure. Organizational documents must be prepared, meeting minutes kept, financial data recorded, and annual reports to the state and the IRS.

Becoming a nonprofit organization

It is recommended that you consult a nonprofit attorney during this process. The Oregon Office of the Attorney General has a list of nonprofit attorneys, “A Guide to Nonprofit Board Service in Oregon.” Attorneys will quote an hourly rate of $150 to $200+ an hour, and most require a retainer fee, some up to $2000, for them to draw against as they spend time on your work. One organization in the Portland area is a nonprofit legal firm, and has an intern training with them for nonprofit legal work. Their fees are considerably less than having an attorney perform all of the work. Since the attorneys check the documents before they are returned to you there is adequate legal coverage. Also, the attorney will be the contact if the State or the IRS have questions. Hourly costs can be saved if the organization first develops Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws. This will give the attorneys some understanding of the organization’s purpose without having lengthy conversations to describe the group’s work.

The first two forms to be processed are a request to the Oregon Department of Justice, Charitable Activities Section (Form RF-C), and another to the Oregon Secretary of State, Corporation Division. Also, both the packages must include signed and dated By-laws and Articles of Incorporation. The Department of Justice will want the names and addresses of all members of the Board of Directors and a check for $55.00. The group is assigned an organizational number and returned to the listed contact for the group (attorney or Board member). This now is the number for use on all forms and reports for the group.

The next step is to proceed with the IRS on Form 1023, “Application for Recognition of Exemption.” This form requires an EIN number on each page, and the Oregon organizational number is the number for the group. This is a lengthy form with mostly “yes” or “no” questions about the purpose of the group and includes a section for current and a projection of financial data. A check must accompany this request. The amount varies with the size of the organization’s financial standing.

The New Sweden Cultural Heritage Society received registration as a Corporation, No. 844175-92, with the Oregon Secretary of State, Corporation Division in March. After the Board approves the By-Laws, a registration request will be sent to the Oregon Department of Justice, Charitable Activities Section, to receive State Registration for Charitable Organizations status. The Application for Recognition of Exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service will be presented at the next Board meeting on May 8. This should complete the State and Federal application process and all forms and supporting documentation will be submitted to the appropriate agency. Then we wait.
Råbiff or Steak Tartare - A summer classical

Though there are many fanciful stories connecting steak tartare with the Tatar or Tartar people of Central Asia, there is no evidence that the Tatars ate raw chopped meat, and if they did, no explanation of why the name would first appear in the 20th century. The name may come from tartar sauce, which often accompanied it, or from the notion that the Tatars were primitive—cf. the alternate names boeuf cannibal and boeuf à l'américaine.

Steak tartare is a meat dish made from finely chopped or minced raw beef or horse. Tartare can also be made by thinly slicing a high grade of meat such as strip steak, marinating it in wine or other spirits, spicing it to taste, and then chilling it. This is often served with onions, capers and seasonings (the latter typically incorporating fresh ground pepper and Worcestershire sauce), sometimes with a raw egg yolk, and often on rye bread.

Ingredients (2 portions)

- Assorted fresh greens
- 12 ounces beef tenderloin or sirloin
- Worcestershire, Hot pepper sauce
- Salt and Black Pepper
- 2 tablespoons drained capers
- 2 tablespoons Dijon mustard
- 1/3 cup minced red onion
- 1/3 cup finely chopped parsley
- 2 egg yolks
- Extra-virgin olive oil

Direction

Garnish 2 plates with the fresh greens.

Place the beef on a cutting board and finely chop with a very sharp knife. Season to taste with Worcestershire sauce, hot pepper sauce, salt and black pepper. Shape the meat into 2 patties of equal size and center each on a plate of fresh greens.

Around each meat patty arrange half of the capers, Dijon mustard, red onion and parsley. Carefully break the 2 eggs, reserving the yolk and half of each shell. Place the yolks in their eggshell cups, then place an egg yolk in the center of each patty. Serve the steak tartare with toast points, olive oil, and hot pepper sauce and Worcestershire sauces on the side.
